

7th Research Conference

Wed 22 May 2024, 09:30-16:00

Doors open 09:00 if registered to attend in person at Mercure Hotel, Willerby.
If you have registered to join the conference online, you will be sent a link to join the live event a few days before.

Contact us: HNF-TR.ResearchTeam@nhs.net

Programme

Morning session

09:00	Registration (for those attending in person) and opportunity to look at research stands
09:30	Welcome Michele Moran, Chief Executive, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
Chair (morning): Rt Hon Caroline Flint, Trust Chair, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
09:35	Tribute to Dr Wendy Mitchell, Trust Research Champion (and so much more) – Cathryn Hart, Assistant Director Research & Development, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
09:45	Addictions research - Dr Soraya Mayet, Director of Medical Education - Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust & Honorary Reader - Hull York Medical School
10:10	Nature based Interventions for children's mental health and wellbeing - Dr Hannah Armitt, Senior Clinical Research Psychologist, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
10:35	Research didn't just give us hope, it gave us our son back and gave Evan his life back! - Lisa Davies, Head of Legal Services and Information Governance, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust, and Evan Davies, Clinical Trial Participant
10:50	Break (and opportunity to look at research stands)
11:15	Helping people with mental health issues to be more physically active - Dr Rowan Diamond, Research Clinical Psychologist, Oxford Cognitive Approaches to Psychosis team
11:40	Progress is impossible without change: introducing research into our general practices - Marian Opoku-Fofie, Deputy Chief Pharmacist & Esther Sanni, Principal Clinical Pharmacist, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
12:05	The what, why and how of clinical academic AHP research - Louise Shelley, Specialist Speech and Language Therapist and Professional Lead Adult Speech and Language Therapy, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
12.30	Lunch (and opportunity to look at research stands)

Afternoon session

Chair (afternoon): Dr Kwame Opoku-Fofie, Medical Director & Executive Lead for Research, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
13:30	CognoSpeak: AI tool could speed up dementia diagnosis - Dr Dan Blackburn, (Hon) Consultant Neurologist, University of Sheffield Dept of Neuroscience & Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHSFT, and Caitlin Illingworth, Research Assistant, University of Sheffield
13:55	Loneliness and Domestic Abuse are “wicked” problems. You cannot just throw money at these problems and wish them to go away - Dr Austen El-Osta, Director, Self-Care Academic Research Unit (SCARU), & AOs Alaa, Department of Primary Care & Public Health, Imperial College London
14:20	Celebrating research across the year (video) - Cathryn Hart, Assistant Director Research & Development, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
14:35	Break (and opportunity to look at research stands)
15:00	Showcasing a local pilot project offering hybrid clinical/research placements to student nurses to increase research knowledge and skills in the future workforce - Dr Haley Jackson, Clinical effectiveness & Research Nurse, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust, with Melanie Barnard, Lead Educator (Clinical) Workforce, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust & Charlotte Harrison, 3 rd Year Student Nurse, University of Hull
15:25	Stories of living and working with risk from a child and adolescent mental health service - Elizabeth Darwell, Systemic and Family Psychotherapist, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust & Psychological Professions Workforce Lead, Humber and North Yorkshire Health and Care Partnership
15:50	Conference Round Up - Rt Hon Caroline Flint, Trust Chair, Humber Teaching NHS Foundation Trust
16:00	Close